EDUCATION—General Report of the committee, on, on the subject of, in this State,

N.

Remarks on the reports of the principles of schools,

“ 1

Secret of the failure of the system of, in Maryland; the frequent changes in the several counties; salaries of teachers too low,

“ 2

The latter renders our disorganized system essentially vagrant; the system in, and the experience of Massachusetts,

“ 3

	Doc.	Pg.
EDUCATION—
Relations of intelligence and government,	N.	5
Educational system ought to be general and complete; and subject to the control of one common head; the Secretary of State not the proper officer therefor, and why; the President of St. John's College recommended as a suitable personage,	"	8
Proposed system would not prostrate the collegiate system but bring collegiate education within reach of the humblest,	"	9
The public mind should receive an American, and not a foreign and Roman or Latin direction,	"	9
Comparative advantages of the study of science and the dead languages,	"	10
Importance of a knowledge of the history of our own country, and of primary studies,	"	12
Disadvantages of sending children abroad to be educated; the advantage of uniting agriculture with our institutions,	"	13
Our intellectual servitude to the North; recommendations of the committee; the system in Massachusetts,	"	14
General condition of Education in Massachusetts; ditto in Maryland, as well as can be ascertained,	"	19

FREE PEOPLE OF COLOR—Report of the select committee, consisting of the Charles county delegation, relative to the removal of the, from said county,	G.
Increase of free blacks notwithstanding the operations of the Colonization society,	"	1
Some compulsory process should be adopted for their removal,	"	2

FREE PEOPLE OF COLOR—

Doc. Pg.

Objections to such removal considered; that class not freemen but creatures of the law; trial by jury their only constitutional right,

G. 2

Had no part in the compact of our government; the act giving them their freedom unconstitutional,

" 3

This question discussed,

" 4

The two clauses in the bill of rights relied on as guaranteeing to slaves constitutional rights, discussed; the word freemen does not embrace free negroes,

" 5

Decision of the Supreme Court of Pennsylvania in point,

" 6

Great importance of the free negro policy or institution; rapid growth of that class,

" 13

Legislation in regard to the class; circulation of incendiary publications; colonization law,

" 14

Relative increase and decrease in the several counties of whites and free blacks, for the last fifty years, and from that ratio, the relative numbers of each fifty and a hundred years hence,

" 15

Cause of the more rapid increase of free blacks in Maryland,

" 17

Result of this relative increase and decrease; expels white labor; the consequences; the highest attainment of blacks yet known,

" 18
